THURSDAY JANUARY 25, 7:00PM

BRING A COVERED DISH

PROGRAM: "MACON 1800 DANCE CLUB"

10-16 IN THE GROUP. SO A BIT MORE FOOD MAY BE NEEDED.

If you have not attended lately, you have not seen our new front door. I along with your new president Frances, welcome you to HCC. New covering for the front porch too. We are proud of this and a new back door. Makes the inspectors happy too. Ed.

Welcome to your Howard Community Club

You don't have to be handicapped to enjoy the new ramp at the front of the building. FIRST CLASS. Very nice when carrying in loads or any time. So don't let those "hard to navigate" front steps keep you away from HCC meetings. A new handicap restroom has been in place for some time. So don't let a disability keep you from our meetings. Ed.

December Program

We all enjoyed,
Real Entertainment from
Our own
Katrina "Kitty" Knight
Our own
Karen Clifton
At the piano.
Christmas songs
Sing-Along

January Program

We will be entertained
By the Well known
Macon 1800 Dance Club
Tom Stevens, President
The men and ladies, in period costume will perform up to 5 or so dances, including the Virginia Reel when members of the audience will be invited to take part.

HCC members Judy and Garry
Kornegay are part of the group.

Our Sympathy

Member Barbara Goodrum

Our heart felt sympathy goes out to Paul Goodrum (and the whole family) for the loss of his wife Barbara. She died in December after a long illness. It was suggested that memorial donations should go to Hospice of Central Georgia, 3780 Eisenhower Parkway, Macon GA 31206. She leaves a husband Paul, a son and daughter and other family. Computer users may visit online www.mem.com to express tributes.

Member's Granddaughter

Elizabeth Pryor

We need to express our deepest sympathy to HCC member Lois Pryor (and family) for the loss of a granddaughter Elizabeth Pryor. On January 8, 2007. Other details were not available at press time. If you so desire you may write:

Lois Pryor
200 Pierce Ave. #103B,
Macon GA 31204
